TITLE: COMMUNIST APPARATUS FOR CAPTURING INSURGENCY MOVEMENTS

LECTURER: CIA

PURPOSE AND SCOPE:

The purpose of this lecture is to increase understanding of the communist apparatus used to capture local insurgency movements.

The speaker could address himself to some of the following considerations:

- A. What role does the Soviet aid, trade, technical assistance, and educational programs play in preparing the way for localized insurgency movements?
- B. What specific techniques and tactics do the communists employ to subvert or redirect local insurgency movements?
- C. What is the role of persuasion and terror in taking over such movements?
- D. What is the role of the indigous Party Cadre?
- E. How is local, non-Communist, leadership subverted?
